3. The date and time user accessed the Sites.
4. The pages user visits.

3. Cookies

HSL may use cookies. A cookie is a small file containing information that is sent to a user's Web browser to distinguish users of web sites. The use of cookies is a regular practice among Internet web sites. Sites may occasionally use both persistent and non-persistent cookies to enhance or improve user's visit to Sites. Non-persistent cookies are created automatically on the instrument user is employing to access Sites. A non-persistent cookie is erased when user's Web browser is closed. Persistent cookies are stored on user's hard drive. These types of cookies allow Sites to recognize user upon subsequent visits which may facilitate user's preference for certain features available on Sites. User should note that the majority of Web browsers accept cookies, however there may be options available on user's browser that may prevent the accepting or receiving of cookies. If cookies are not accepted, there is a possibility that the complete functionality of Sites may be impaired.

4. Security of Information

HSL employs reasonable measures to protect information from unauthorized access or disclosure. If user communication includes personal information that they do not wish to provide electronically, please contact HSL by postal mail or telephone.

5. Links to Other Sites

Sites may include hyperlinks to web sites maintained or controlled by others. HSL is not responsible for and does not routinely review, approve or endorse the contents of or use of any of the products or services that may be offered at these web sites.

6. Use Limitations

User may use Sites for legal purposes only. User may not use HSL computing resources or Sites to disseminate unsolicited advertising or promotional material of any kind. Unauthorized attempts to upload information and/or change information on Sites are strictly prohibited and are subject to prosecution.

7. Disclaimer of Warranty

HSL does not warrant that sites will operate in an uninterrupted or error-free manner or that the Sites are free of viruses or other harmful components. Use of information from or through these Sites is at user's own risk.

8. Limitation of Liability

USER AGREES THAT HSL WILL NOT BE LIABLE FOR ANY LOSS OR DAMAGES, EITHER ACTUAL OR CONSEQUENTIAL, ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THESE TERMS, OR TO USER'S OR ANY THIRD PARTIES USE OR INABILITY TO USE A SITE, OR TO USER'S RELIANCE UPON INFORMATION OBTAINED FROM OR THROUGH A SITE.
